

Security Awareness for Young People Travelling Overseas

CPD Accredited Online Training

About

The fully online, CPD Accredited Security Training Course for Young People Travelling & Working Overseas Course, is recommended for any young person travelling alone, or in groups around unfamiliar and risk-associated areas or working their way around different countries.

The course covers a wide variety of factors, risks and threats, and is designed to instil an understanding of risk assessment, and the mitigation of risk of an incident within the Learner.

The aim of this online Security Awareness for Young People Travelling Overseas is to provide the Learner with a look at various threats, risks and incidents, and how to mitigate the risk of a safety or security-related incident. Young travellers face various inherent dangers and risks of encountering a safety, or security-related incident when transiting through foreign environments. This online course provides the Learner with various subjects and considerations they need to be made aware of.

Course Access

As with all our online courses, access to the course is for a 6-month period from the date of purchase. You may enter and exit the course as often as you wish. Course progress is saved, and you can start from where you left off.

Target Audience

This online course is aimed at young people who are either travelling around or working overseas as part of their 'holiday experience'.
